Our Talented Community says

The marketing campaigns and initiatives within Talented have a high value for us as partners, they help us to be more visible and to carry out high-impact actions in our companies and as a community. That is why Italy is present in the marketing practice group!

- Gianluca Gioia (CEO, MCS Selection/ Talented Italy)

The campaigns we run within the Talented marketing practice group make a real difference across the entire network. We're not just using big words. At Popcorn Recruiters, we've noticed an increase in reach and engagement on our social media channels. Our Talented-related posts have seen a boost in impressions, indicating that we're gaining attention.
